Army Work Launched in Glades Section

Salvation Army activities in the Glades area were launched here Thursday when a group of women gathered at the new Army headquarters in Glades to hear a presentation of the program to start work on a missionary project.

Capt. Lillian Blackburn has organized a mission project to start work on a missionary project. Capt. Blackburn will be in charge of the Salvation Army center in West Gate since October, 1943, will make Pahokee her headquarters in Glades.

The program of activities throughout the Everglades section of Palm Beach County is being directed by Capt. Charles Johnson in West Palm Beach. He is planning a regular schedule of visits to all the towns.

This is a new field for the Salvation Army and Captain Blackburn reports that she has received warm welcome in all the communities she has visited. An experienced recreational worker, she plans to spend much of her time promoting young people's activities.

As soon as suitable quarters are secured, the Salvation Army will be able to give the general public will be started, she said.

Three Airfields For The Glades In Post-War Plans

Development of two airfields at Belle Glades at a cost of $573,000 and one at Pahokee, upon which $351,000 is to be expended, has been urged as part of the post-war program for this area by the Civil Aeronautics Administration. These airfields will be in addition to the Lantana field and county airfield. The former has been scheduled to cost $281,800 and the latter $99,300.

These four potential airport sites in Palm Beach county are a part of the post-war program of aviation expansion recommended to Congress by the Civil Aeronautics Board. The cost of the development of the four potential airports is $1,204,100.

That settlement of farm produce in this area is a problem, Mr. Rardin said, was not such a dream as many had believed when such a development was first discussed in this section. He pointed out plans for the post-war construction of the local fields were being worked out by civic leaders.

Neighboring communities will also be tied into the chain of airfields. The plan is to build a road from the Glades to the Lantana field. This road will be built by the state government.

Part of a billion-dollar program of aviation expansion for the post-war period, this proposed airport at Belle Glades is being developed on the basis of federal funds made available to match funds appropriated by the state government in the post-war development of aviation.

CALDWELL SPEAKS OUT

Governor-elect Caldwell's plea to the Florida Chamber of Commerce annual conference to fight against "indefensible freight rates and tariffs" bespeaks an administration that will be alert to this state's and section's needs and problems.

It is an old story with us in the South—these freight rates that shackle our industry and our agriculture. It is an encouraging sign that our state executives speak right out in meeting as Caldwell did at Tampa. The truth should be heard and heeded.

"Some of our Northern friends ask why it is that Southerners do not forget about the Civil War. It would be more to a point to ask why it is, that after the passage of so many decades in which the North and the South have fought side by side in three wars, that Southern states are still held in the grip of economic sanctions to punish them for the Act of Secession some 85 years ago. Why is it that Florida and other Southern states are still treated like captives of war? They are denied a fair chance to develop and prosper on equal terms with the rest of the nation?"

This is not waving the bloody shirt. It is the voice of a great section of the United States asking for parity, for equal footing with the rest of the Union, in which to work out the destiny to which our natural resources and native genius entitle us.—Palm Beach Post.

within the state. As the prospect for increased feed supplies, from outside, states has diminished, farmers and cattlemen have concentrated more on pasture improvement and increased plantings of soybean beans and other items for winter feeding.

Release of the molasses by the WFA calls for attention to its high feed values as revealed by the various research projects in the state. Tests by the Everglades Experiment Station, the University of Florida and the United States Sugar Corp., have all proved its nutritional value and acceptability to cattle in finishing pens and on the pasture, both alone and in mixed feeds.

At the Belle Glade Experiment Station, one group of steers fed on equal parts of dried shredded sweet potato and molasses made average daily gains of 1.68 pounds per head. A second group fed on equal parts of ground snap corn and molasses made average daily gains of 1.70; while a third group fed on one part ground snap corn and three parts of molasses gained 1.86 pounds per head per day.

At Clewiston, Dr. E. A. Bourne, vice-president and director of research for the United States Sugar Corp., has reported that during the first time in history cattle have been finished for market without the use of pasture or any grain whatsoever. In trials conducted by the company, cattle fed on a non-grain diet averaged gains from 1.95 to 2.48 pounds daily.

The major portion of the diet consisted of lemongrass pulp and molasses. Blackstrap molasses in unlimited quantities made available in self-feeding troughs and a small percentage of high protein supplements, along with the usual mineral supplements.

It is a comparatively recent discovery that cane molasses can be fed directly to cattle in its natural form, and that such feeding eliminates the necessity of feeding a considerable quantity of corn or other grain. Another discovery was that cane molasses from the Florida Everglades contained higher nutritional values than the average molasses from other sources.

But, at the same time that these research results became widely known among Florida cattlemen and farmers, distribution of molasses was restricted by the government because of the war. This latest order by the WFA now makes it possible for farmers to take advantage of the state's research and combat winter feed shortages through the use of molasses.

Ben Wingate, who recently underwent an appendectomy at the Everglades Memorial Hospital, was able to return to his home in Lake Harbor on Wednesday.

USE SINCLAIR LUBRICANTS

In saving wear and avoiding breakdown the U. S. Army uses Sinclair lubricants in many "Jeeps", tanks and other vehicles. Your Sinclair Dealer has the same quality lubricants to reduce wear in your car.

To save engine wear he has Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil. Opaline stands up better, and lasts longer because it is not only de-waxed but also de-jellied. Play safe, have your Sinclair Dealer drain and refill your crankcase with Opaline every 1,000 miles.

Molasses As Feed For Cattle May Be Used WFA Rules

GALENSVILLE, Dec. 7. (FNS)—With Florida farmers and cattlemen facing winter food shortages, news of the release this week of blackstrap molasses by the War Food Administration for feeding purposes and insect control was welcomed by them as one means of easing the animal problem.

The WFA ruling, which authorizes the State AAA to issue certificates upon application, will relieve farmers of difficulties which they have experienced in securing molasses because of past regulations.

In making application to the AAA offices at Galensville, farmers were directed to designate the amount needed, proposed for which it is to be used, and the name of the dealer from whom they wish to purchase it.

Florida has been importing some half million tons of hay and animal food, costing over $15,000,000 annually. Dependent upon other states for its winter cattle feed requirements, the severity of the state's problem has increased with wartime shortages and wartime transportation difficulties.

To meet that problem, state agricultural agencies, the University of Florida and private researchers have been investigating the problem of developing feeds

Delmar Hooks Thanks His Many Friends

I want to take this opportunity to extend my sincere appreciation to a number of folks who helped me save a lot of stuff in the recent fire which destroyed my store and quarters. I can never express the gratitude that is in my heart for the fine co-operation shown by many of my "friends and neighbors. Especially do I want to thank members of the Pahokee Fire Department who worked tirelessly in an effort to bring the fire under control. They did an excellent piece of work and I shall always remember their heroism.

Of course, there were thieves among the helpers. While the rage and my property was being consumed by the flames, at least three people walked away with some of my merchandise, $96 worth of cigarettes in one lot were carried off by a party thief. It is this thief believes he can convert those cigarettes into cash that will be of use to him—he's welcome to it. Others who walked off with my merchandise are known to me and shall always be remembered.

It was a real shame. There wasn't one dime's worth of insurance! The fire, in a few minutes, wiped out what my wife and I have worked for during the past 19 years. But, with the help of an all-wise Creator, who has aided us in the past, we will be back in the running in the future. We plan to start at once to build a new store on our vacant lot despite the fact that bureaucrats won't okeh a piece of lumber for us to build with! Our cause is non-essential, they say. However, we can build a concrete block building—what we plan to do.

Again, let me thank those who helped us.

DELMAR HOOKS, Canal Point, Fla.

"AN UNDERSTANDING HEART"

It is a hard thing for a man to remain balanced in an unbalanced
world, but when we think of it,
it was no easy task for a man to keep his balance in a balanced world (if there ever was such a thing). Humanity has forever found it difficult to adjust to whatever state it has found itself in and therein to be content. People have constantly pushed and reached and grabbed at things which bring the sea-saw of life
greatly out of proportion.

We earn a good living at one job and we're not satisfied; we think we must do more and get more and then our lives are thrown out of balance, not through any design of our Creator

but by our own selfish ambitions.
People need to learn to live in the life that God has planned for them.
We need to know what it is to think clearly, to act precisely, and to live nobly. That life that lives in knowledge and truth is the happy life, and since God is the Author of all truth, there is no more a doubtful quest than that search for His Truth. It is this Truth, this Wisdom, that makes a man great.
The young king found himself in the midst of a great and multitude of people, he felt the challenge of his royalty, he knew the frailty of his might... So he cried out to God for an understanding heart.

and his prayer pleased the Father.
Oh, we need to cry out today for understanding hearts! It'll balance our lives; it'll make us great. Power, praise, and riches are fine only inasmuch as we know how to use them, else they are a curse.

Come Sunday morning, if you have no other church affiliation,
to the Canal Point Baptist Church and hear a sermon on "An Understanding Heart." Our service begins at 11:00 o'clock.

Pastor Canal Point

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Despite the change in weather,
forty-two attended last Sunday's session of the Men's Fellowship Bible Class of Pahokee. From an average attendance of some ten,
the class has grown to a better than fifty in attendance average.
The goal is one hundred, and if the spirit displayed by the men is a criterion, this objective will soon be attained. Rev. C. A. Mo-berg, the teacher, will again present the lesson, this week, Matt.
19:3-6; Luke 10:38-42; and 2 Tim.
1:3-5, titled "The Home." A most cordial invitation is extended to all visitors and service men to visit the class, which meets each Sunday morning at 9:45, Lions Club building. The quartet will sing.

Catholics Plan For Charity Campaign

ST. AUGUSTINE, Dec. 7 (FNS)— Judge David J. Heffernan of Coral Gables has been appointed general chairman of the forthcoming capital funds campaign of the United Catholic Charities of the Diocese of St. Augustine. It was announced this week by the Most Reverend Bishop.

The campaign will finance the building of much needed orphanages and homes for the aged in convenient locations throughout the Diocese. It will provide for the extension of rural missions,
and will make possible the training of leaders for the exacting task of carrying on post-war charitable, religious, recreational and social work, Judge Hefferman pointed out. In accepting, the chairmanship, Judge Heffer-
man said, "I am proud of this opportunity to serve the Church while also helping the less fortunate people of Florida."

Every kitchen is a war front.
Waste fat is vital to the war effort and if our men on the fighting front are to have the ammunition they need to finish the job,
the American housewife must save her waste kitchen fat and turn it in to her local grocer regularly.

A story that hasn't been told

AN AMERICAN WAR PRODUCTION RECORD THAT DESERVES TELLING . . .

On December 14, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, the men and women of Humble Oil & Refining Company will pause in their work to commemorate, in appropriate ceremony, a feat unparalleled in the petroleum industry: The production of ONE BILLION GALLONS of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline at the Baytown refinery.

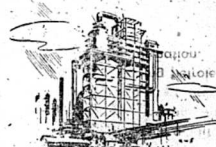

This accomplishment merits special commendation, because it climaxes 25 years of development, planning, and teamwork of a great organization. The cooperative effort of Humble employees has brought about a uniform progress in all phases of the Company's operations which has enabled them to establish remarkable records in finding, producing, transporting and refining petroleum during a critical period in the history of our nation.

Humble research and development, in progress for many years before Pearl Harbor, made possible these accomplishments and contributed greatly to the total production of aviation and the tremendous quantities of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline required by our Armed Forces.

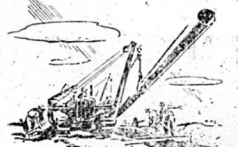

Baytown Refinery Works, first synthetic aviation plant in the world, has supplied aviation fuel for at least one out of every two bombs used by the United Nations since Pearl Harbor. For this production, too, Baytown Refinery Works has five times been awarded the Army-Navy "E".

Baytown Refinery has made one billion gallons of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline—more than has been produced by any other plant in the world. The world's first commercial aviation plant was built at Baytown in 1918. The all-plant process is the very backbone of 100-octane aviation gasoline production by the entire petroleum industry.

Humble Oil & Refining Company is the nation's largest producer of crude oil, and is currently supplying about one-fourth of the increased production required for war, as measured by the gain since 1941.

Through the facilities of Humble Pipe Line Company, there is being transported more oil than is being carried by any other system in the country. Nearly 700,000 barrels move daily through Humble pipe lines—one-seventh of all the oil production in the United States.

United in a great singleness of purpose, 14,000 Humble men and women are devoting themselves to the task of providing vital petroleum products for war, looking to the day when their 3,000 field employees and all their comrades in arms will return.

OPEN HOUSE AT BAYTOWN REFINERY—DECEMBER 14-17

So that one of America's great war plants may be seen in action, Baytown Refinery is holding open house from Thursday, December 14, through Sunday, December 17. The story of the refinery at war will be told by dramatic exhibits of petroleum war products and a great Army and Navy show of war machines and materials. Specially conducted tours will take Humble's friends and neighbors into the heart of the refinery itself.
